

Scott Ketchan of Boyertown searches for antique parts.

A colorful array of street rods line the Boyertown Community Park on Saturday.

A Day at Duryea

These gentlemen tell entertaining stories of their old cars.

New and old were seen passing through the registration line.

Berks-Mont photos by Harold Hoch

Pottstown's Peanut the Clown made balloon-shaped animals high atop his stilts.

What was that slogan - "This isn't your father's Oldsmobile."

This fellow liked the leather seat upholstery.

This 1902 Oldsmobile of Wilmer Moyer looked great!

Fast roadsters and the "General Lee".

Musical entertainment was provided by "Steppin' Out".

The line-up of trucks was started with the Ford pick-ups of John Sweeney.

Brian Eaches was more interested in climbing poles than Bill Boswell's 1932 DeSoto.