

Scottish Irish Festival

Berks-Mont Photos by Fred Phillips

Green Lane Park's second annual Scottish Irish Festival & Highland games last weekend was a huge success. The events brought people from all over the area including a Loch Ness want-to-be. Green Lane Park is a part of the Montgomery County Parks department and is located in Green Lane.

News at a Glance

Heritage Festival

On October 6 & 7, the Berks County Parks & Recreation Department will present the 20th annual Heritage Festival from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. On Saturday visitors will be able to see an antique car and farm equipment display, riding demonstrations and the Reading K-9 unit. At 1:30 p.m. there will be a "Buffalo Bill" reenactor and with the help of the Rajah Shrine Mounted Patrol, a drill routing. There will also be pony rides, storytelling and a pedal tractor pull and more for the kids. On Sunday there will be a carriage and wagon show and more. Admission is free with a parking donation. The Heritage Center is located on Red Bridge Road off Route 183 just south of the Rt. 222 exit.

Camp Pottsgrove

Camp life of George Washington's army will come to life Sept. 29 when a "living history" event, Camp Pottsgrove, will be held at Pottsgrove Manor, Pottstown. The event commemorates the 224th anniversary of the "camp near Pottsgrove." The 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. event will include musket firing and special interest programs. Directions for a self-guided auto tour will also be available.

Credit cards and college students

State Attorney General Mike Fisher says that as students head off to college they should be limited to having only a few credit cards and warned that college students will be offered a number of credit cards while at school. He says parents and students should limit the number of cards, shop around and get the best terms, be sure to understand the offer(s) and language, and pay the card bill in full, on time.

Phone drive launched

Verizon Wireless has launched a drive to collect used wireless phones and donate them to Berks Women in Crisis. The phones will be reprogrammed and given to area domestic violence victims. Verizon made an initial donation of 30 phones. If you are interested, contact Verizon or the Berks Women in Crisis.

Democrats need help

The Pennsylvania Democratic Party is looking for a few good volunteers. They want anyone interested in volunteering for night, day or weekend work in any of a number of areas from making phone calls to helping local campaigns. If interested, write the party at 510 North 3rd Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101.

10 Killed in crashes

The State Police have announced that 10 people were killed on state highways during the four-day Labor Day holiday weekend. It was noted that of those killed, 7 were not wearing seat belts and two fatalities were alcohol-related. Additionally 331 people were injured in 704 crashes. State Police also issued 6,505 speeding citations. Last year, 12 people were killed in the same period.
