Mako Sharks eat up foes at county relays

By Dennis Gould
Times Sports Editor

The Mako Sharks had a very successful showing at the county championships. Individuals and relay teams set team records, county records and pool records during this summer's event.

In the 13-14 year-old girls division, the 200m medley relay of Jenny Brizek, Shayna Longacre, Kerry Nichols and Emily Christy set a new county record of 2:09.57.

Christy also set a county record in the 200m freestyle with a time of 2:11.94. This is also a team record. She set the standard in the 400m freestyle with a 4:33.55, which is also a team record. The talented Christy was county champion, setting the new mark in the 100m butterfly at 1:07.07. This was also a team record.

The 200m free relay team for girls ages 13-14 established a team record and became county champions with a time of 1:56.68. Team members included Christy, Brizek, Alex Allen and Tamar Maloney.

The boys 13-14 team of Ryne Francis, Ryan Berger, Ryan Wright and Michael Ingram became county champions in the 200m medley relay with a time of 2:07.20.

Berger was the county champion in the 200m freestyle with a 2:12.46.

In the mens division 15 and older, the team of Peter Lanning, Kyle Centrella, Brandon Youse and Tim Robinson set a new team record and became county champions with a time of 1:42.44.

In the womens' division of 15 and older, Kristen Roncase, Leslie Moatz, Kacey Centrella and Jen Feenstra swam to a county championship in the 200m medley relay, turning in 2:07.95.

Moatz, Feenstra, Liz Geary and Ashley Kroh became county champions in the 200m freestyle relay with a time of 1:55.56 in the 15 and older womens' division.
